CMDagleishArtwork is a growing collection of original pen and ink drawings and acrylic paintings. My artwork is based in Austin, TX.

My pen and inks have broad subject matter conveying my appreciation and observations, seen and unseen, in nature and cultures in black on white.

My love for bright colors and desire for more freedom escorted my work to include painting with acrylics on canvas. My paintings share a pluralistic contemporary style. Some reflect bold color in expressive movement while others offer gentle softness.

My work remains prolific toward blurring boundaries. I find a spiritual and emotional connection when I allow for letting go enough to hear direction and trust obediently as a child. My artwork may incline to take you somewhere you've never been before.
